

TECHNICAL WRITING MAJOR

Begins

Fall 2023 Semester

Coordinator

Dr. Daniel P. Richards

Credit Hours

18 (six courses)

Department

English

WHAT IS THE TECHNICAL WRITING MAJOR?

The Technical Writing Major is designed to prepare students for a wide range of workplace opportunities. By focusing on the fundamentals of communicating through writing and visuals, students are engaged in writing a wide range of document types for multiple audiences in a variety of practical contexts. In addition to the internship, most courses include writing projects that provide workplace-based experiences.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

Course	Title	What does this course do?
ENGL 334W	Technical Writing	Covers the fundamentals of the field.
ENGL 335	Editing & Document Design	Develops technical design skills.
ENGL 368	Writing Internship	Applies knowledge to the workplace.
ENGL 435W	Management Writing	Enhances problem-based writing.
Select two:	ENGL 327W Advanced Composition ENGL 427W Writing in the Disciplines ENGL 436 Writing for the Government ENGL 439 Writing in Digital Spaces ENGL 468 Advanced Writing Internship ENVH 402W, OEAS466W, or other interdisciplinary writing class	